"We have seen a number of Queen Tribute bands over the years but none as brilliant as the amazing Supersonic Queen... the atmosphere was electric! The show was FABULOUS such talented musicians and what a brilliant Freddie, Wow that voice! We danced and sang along all night, and we loved every single minute of the show... Please, please come back soon."

"Supersonic Queen are head and shoulders above other Queen tributes. Sometimes tribute bands have a great front man but are let down by the band ... and sometimes you get great bands and a front man that doesn't quite cut it.... It's not often that you get a great band AND a great front man that create the magic that the original created ... but Supersonic Queen have it all!!! Sit back and strap yourselves in!" JOE PASQUALE

"...Does the legend proud beyond belief!"

"Watching Supersonic Queen, this weekend evoked so many good memories of seeing Queen play live back in 1986. I cannot wait to see them again, they captured the true essence of Queen"

"I was blown away by the whole show. If you are a Queen fan, go and see these guys. Totally awesome from start to finish."

"Great energy and stage presence right from the beginning. We were truly blown away by the band and vocal ability... this is the closest you are going to get to Queen, the theatrical stage presence of the vocalist is second only to the great Freddie Mercury himself. Awesome show, awesome band and truly awesome people!"

COLLABORATIONS

Back in January we met Harami-Chan, the famous and amazingly talented pianist, YouTuber and presenter. In her incredibly busy schedule filming in London, she took time out to catch our show... and we invited her to join us onstage.

Her 'Street Piano' series on YouTube and her successive tour of the most prestigious concert venues in Japan, have given her the opportunity to perform some of the Queen songs she loves the most. It was an honour to perform with her.
